

DANUBE
SMALL PROJECT
FUND

Call for Proposals

Danube Small Project Fund for Culture

The first low-threshold grant for small-scale cultural cooperation projects in the Danube region

The Danube Small Project Fund (DSPF) addresses cultural practitioners, institutions and creatives who would like to implement small-scale cultural projects. The DSPF...

1. ... seeks to fund innovative cultural initiatives;
2. ... encourages independent NGOs, small associations & groups of creatives to apply;
3. ... provides easy access & application;
4. ... fosters transnational exchange & cooperation;
5. ... works transparently & efficiently.

For the 2nd Financing Round 2022-23 (2nd Call for Applications), the following features apply:

- A one-off grant or contribution of up to €5,000 is available for the implementation of small cooperation initiatives.
- An overall fund of min. €25,000 is available for every round, which will be distributed among the most promising project proposals.
- The deadline for the next submission (Call 2) is 31 August 2022 at 24:00 CEST.
- The funded projects of Call 2 must be implemented and completed in 2023.

We look forward to receiving your creative project proposal! Our platform relies on active participation and the spreading of information about the possibility of funding. So don't hesitate and apply now or distribute this message to potential beneficiaries from the Danube region.

Find out more about the DSPF, the previously granted projects, and apply for funding now at www.danubeculture.eu

Europäische Donau-Akademie gGmbH, Auf dem Kreuz 28, DE-89073 Ulm, www.donauakademie.eu