

Master in Advanced European and International Studies 2012/13

NICE – BERLIN – ISTANBUL - ROME

Open for Applications now!

The Institut européen·European Institute (IE·EI), an international teaching and research institute in Nice, invites graduate students to apply for its Master programme 2012/13. The “Master in Advanced European and International Studies” (MAEIS) offers an overarching, encompassing vision of the political, social, economic, and cultural problems of today’s modern world. The courses are taught by renowned academics from various European countries, as well as experts from research institutions and practitioners from international organisations. They offer a multi-faceted view on Europe and give students the opportunity to discuss achievements and problems of Europe and to develop ways to handle them.

One programme – two branches

The Master programme comprises three terms and is subdivided into two branches:

- The trilingual branch (teaching languages are English, French, and German) includes trimesters in Nice and Berlin, as well as a one week stay at our partner university in Rostock and a two week seminar at our partner university in Rome.

- The Anglophone branch includes trimesters in Istanbul, Nice and Berlin.

Subject Areas: International Relations, European Integration, Economy and Globalisation, Federalism and Governance.

Both branches organise a study trip to the European and international organisations in Geneva, Strasbourg and Brussels.

The courses take place from October 2012 to July 2013. A limited number of scholarship funds are awarded to particularly qualified candidates to cover parts of the costs of their studies and/or their accommodation.

The IE·EI diplomas (60 ECTS) are delivered in cooperation with its partners, among them Istanbul Bilgi University, the University of Rostock, the EuroSapienza in Rome and the Institut für Europäische Politik in Berlin.

Deadline for applications: 30 June 2012.

For further information please consult www.ie-ei.eu or write to dheei@cife.eu.

The IE·EI is a department of CIFE - one out of six institutes of higher education in Europe which receive a special subvention by the European Commission.

The programmes of the IE·EI have existed for more than 40 years. For a long time, they were organised by the Institut Européen des Hautes Etudes Internationales (IEHEI).

Over 1800 students, coming from more than 90 countries, have graduated from these programmes. They now work for European institutions, international organisations, NGOs, universities, public administration and enterprises.